

PUBLIC LEDGER

WEEKLY REPUBLICAN—1887.
DAILY PUBLIC LEDGER—1890.

MAYSVILLE, KY., SATURDAY, NOVEMBER 11, 1905.

ONE COPY—ONE CENT.

CAN MAKE IT LOOK ANCIENT.
Now here is something funny,
An art that's quite unique,
Our baby can take a new oak chair
And make it quite antique.

THE LEDGER delights in obliging its friends. It prints "Help Wanted," "Situations Wanted," "Lost" and "Found" notices free of charge; and as it costs you nothing for such service, don't you think it is as little as you can do to write the copy and either bring or send it to the office?

If you have an item of news, please call up The Ledger, Telephone 31, and let us have it.

We are showing a fine line of Diamonds, some of the very newest settings. Our $5 Diamond Ring is a beautiful cut stone as nicely cut as the $100 Diamond. Beautifully mounted, this ring sells every where for $10, our price $5. Other Diamonds sold in same proportion.

MURPHY, the Jeweler.

The management of the Opera-house have an opportunity of securing for Wednesday, November 23d, the spectacular drama, "Parsifal." A subscription list of $200 must be raised before this attraction can be contracted for. About $150 has already been raised. If you desire to add your name to the list, do so at once at Ray's Drugstore, as an answer must be given tonight.

The efficacy of advertising was demonstrated to Dr. S. R. Harover Wednesday in a satisfactory manner. He inserted a two-line lost notice in THE LEDGER calling for the return of a valuable pair of surgeon's curved scissors. The next day they were found in his coat pocket, having been placed there by one of his children. It pays to advertise in THE LEDGER; it produces the goods every time.

UNCLE TOM'S CABIN.

At the Washington Opera-house this afternoon and evening Al. W. Martin will present his revival of Harriet Beecher Stowe's "Uncle Tom's Cabin." It has always been a strong drawing card. There are fifty all white people in the company, six man-eating bloodhounds are carried and trained to participate in the drama. Among the specialty features is a chorus of twenty, specially engaged to impersonate the Negroes of the South, who will render plantation songs and dances, quartettes and refrains, and the latest craze in the dance line known as the "Swanee Shine" will be presented, also many other features. Seats now selling at Ray's.

BRAMEL—NOLAN.

Miss Sallie May Nolan and George R. Bramel, a Bible student of Kentucky University, were quietly married at 6:30 o'clock Thursday evening at the home of the bride's parents at Lexington.

Mr. Bramel is the son of Mr. Wood Bramel, a prominent farmer of this county, and he has been a student in the Bible College for several years past.

The announcement of his marriage will come as a surprise to his many friends here.

Mr. E. L. Manchester, Manager of the Keystone Commercial Company, wants 40 or 50 good turkey pickers every day from now until the first of December.

FIRST BAPTIST CHURCH.

All regular meetings tomorrow will be made preparatory to the special work to be begun Monday. The sermons by Pastor Chadwick will be along this line. Members urged not to miss. The usual welcome to all, especially those having no regular Church home.

Begin with the beginning. Brother Clarke comes Monday. Attend all meetings. Daily, 2:30 and 7:30 p. m.

SOCIAL EVENTS

The reception at her home at Needmore given a few days since by Mrs. Mary E. Galbreath, mother of Miss Mollie Howard, who was married last week to Mr. Dye Collins of Mayslick, was one of the most brilliant of the social affairs of that community.

Among the guests were Mrs. W. H. Hawes and son of this city.

Mrs. H. M. Cracraft of Mayslick presided at the piano, and a delightful menu was served in three courses, the first consisting of meats, salads, pickles, punch, potato chips, cranberries and oysters; second of orange and lemon ices, cake and candies in pink and white; the third of olives, cheese and coffee. The table and dining hall were exquisitely decorated in huge white and pink chrysanthemums and pink and white candles.

The presents which Mr. and Mrs. Collins were made the recipients numbered over fifty.

Mr. and Mrs. H. H. Goodwin delightfully entertained Thursday evening in honor of their guests, Misses Myraie Gillespie and Ella Mae Summers, Messrs. I. M. Vandavenport and D. S. Gillespie. Music added to the charms of the pleasant hours. Refreshments were served.

POLICE CHANGES

Scramble For the Honor of Being One of the Finest

There will be two places on the Police force to fill, granting that Ryan and Senteny are retained.

Mr. Harry A. Ort having been elected Chief creates a vacancy, and Policeman J. P. Wallace says he will not be an applicant for a place on the force.

The force as now constituted is a good one. Each officer has discharged his duty in a fearless and vigilant manner, and in that is deserving of praise and approval by the community.

It is hoped out of the ten or fifteen aspirants already announced, with probably more to follow, equally as good men will be chosen as Policemen.

It is not every man that has the necessary qualifications for the making of a good officer, and the City Dads should exercise great care in making a selection.

Read THE LEDGER for all the home news.
